A Beautiful detached Villa on a private up market development on the outskirts of Bigastro, facing north east. Consisting of 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms the finish and decoration of this property has to be seen to be appreciated. All the bedrooms have fitted wardrobes as well as ceiling fans and hot/cold air-conditioning.

The Villa is on a corner plot of 340m² with a well maintained garden easy to manage with many potted plants and a private drive way. Including an outside storage area by the back of the property and electric gates. The villa has a good living area of 139m² and was built in 2004. There is an option to build a 8 by 4 private pool.

A brief description of the property: You enter the villa through a glazed porch which gives you that extra sun lounge, into a very nice dining room and a comfortable part separated lounge. The hallway on the right takes you to the separated kitchen which comes with all fitted units top and bottom and white goods with a back door leading into the independent utility room. On the ground floor is the single bedroom and guest bathroom with a corner shower unit and a very spacious store cupboard that goes underneath the stairs. Upstairs there are 2 more bedrooms both doubles with fitted wardrobes and the family bathroom with a full sized bath. The internal stairs are nice and bright with having very high ceilings and windows letting in all the natural light. At the end of the hall is access to the solarium of 12m² with its beautiful views of the mountains and surrounding countryside, there are outdoor electric points and water. The property comes fully furnished with central heating from the mains gas and is fully alarmed. There is also a small outdoor workshop.

Bigastro is a Spanish town with many bars, shops and restaurants and is only 10 minutes from the ancient city of Orihuela. Within walking distance is the lovely camp site where you can enjoy the outdoor swimming pool and refreshments in the bar.

Viewing is essential!!

No community fees with the suma being €321 per year.
